MYSTIC Project – Final Conference: FIXING WHAT'S BROKEN

Empowering Young People to Shape the Future

31/10/2024

Miranda do Corvo, Portugal – 26th November 2024

The MYSTIC project consortium is pleased to invite educators, youth organizations, youth groups, young people and other stakeholders to join us at the final conference of the MYSTIC project. This EU-funded initiative has been dedicated to addressing youth exclusion and creating sustainable futures through innovative pedagogy and experiential learning.

The hybrid event will take place both in person at ADFP in Miranda do Corvo, Portugal, and online via Zoom, providing a unique opportunity for attendees to engage with key findings and participate in discussions and workshops that shape the future of youth empowerment.

Event Details:

Date: 26th November 2024

Time: 09:30 - 13:00 (Portuguese Time)

Location: Hotel Parque Serra de Lousa, Miranda do Corvo, Portugal

Virtual Participation: Join us via Zoom (REGISTRATION LINK)

Conference Programme Highlights:

The conference, titled “Fixing What’s Broken,” will feature interactive sessions designed to reflect on the causes and consequences of youth exclusion and explore pathways to involve young people in building sustainable, inclusive societies.

Highlights include:

Opening Remarks by Joe Cullen and Dr. Jaime Ramos, ADFP President

Keynote Presentations from project representatives and a member of the Portuguese Ministry of Education (TBC)

Sessions:

How Did We Get Here? – Exploring causes and impacts of youth exclusion, with interactive workshops and real-life case studies

How Do We Fix What's Broken? – A dive into new pedagogical approaches and experiential learning techniques

Where Do We Go from Here? – Engaging youth in building a sustainable future

The MYSTIC project has engaged young people in collaborative labs (“Co-Labs”), empowering them to take part in research, discussions, and development of strategies that address societal challenges. Through the conference, attendees will be able to share insights, network with like-minded young people and professionals working in the youth field, and gain practical knowledge on implementing solutions for youth inclusion.
